PROGRAM NOTE

Composed for the Boston Pops Brass, American Dances by Robert W. Smith is a multi-movement work based on American popular dances and music. The work was premiered as part of the orchestra's summer season at Tanglewood in the Berkshires of Western Massachusetts.

This movement, entitled Square, is based on the folk, country and bluegrass music of the Appalachian Mountains and the American West. Rich in tradition, Square is a celebration of American folk music and dance for the symphonic band..

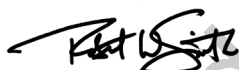

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

The entire work should be performed with lighthearted intensity! I would suggest staging the washboard and spoons for visual effect as well as musical presence. You may also wish to ask the soloists to stand or step out during their melodic statements.

The grace notes throughout allude to the fiddle and the genre-specific style of playing. Please feel free to interpret the grace notes as if the fiddler's bow is digging into the string.

I hope you will consider programming other movements of American Dances including Rag and Swing. The multiple movements were written to create a powerful suite for the symphonic band that connects with audiences worldwide through American popular music.

Best wishes for a wonderful performance!
